

Most Able Learners

Who are they?

Learners who achieve, or have the ability to achieve, at a level significantly in advance of their peers.

Learners who achieve, or have the ability to achieve, at a level significantly in advance of their peers.

Most Able Help My Child

- 1 Talk to your child about their school life, subjects, progress.
- 2 Take your child on “field trips to places that will interest them or engage them in high-level thinking .
- 3 Show them the value of reading; English texts/ watching the news/documentaries together.
- 4 Help with organisation of time & take an interest in their school subjects.
- 5 Be supportive and encourage your child.
- 6 Allow them free time to do their own thing.

Most Able Provisions

In School Support

- Stretch & Challenge activities in lessons.
- High-quality teaching; broader range of texts, extension through more detail and complexity & promote independence
- Feedback, marking and assessments which helps the learner to improve to the level expected
- Appropriate homework

Beyond The Classroom

- Mentoring
- Clubs & Societies
- Extracurricular activities such as, code club
- Support plans to help underachieving Most Able Learners

Most Able Learners

Most Able Pedagogy & Resources

MENSA – The High IQ Society
www.mensa.org.uk

Government Information
www.education.gov.uk

National Association for Able Children
www.nace.co.uk

Potential Plus UK
www.potentialplusuk.org

Cambridge University
<https://nrich.maths.org/>
Free mathematical enrichment resources, problem-solving games, and challenges developed by the University of Cambridge.

Learning in Action

Our Brilliant Club learners enjoyed a fantastic visit to London, sampling global cuisine at Dishoom as part of an enriching cultural experience.

Our Brilliant Club learners stepped into the world of law through an exciting courtroom role-play. Taking on different courtroom roles, they developed their critical-thinking, communication and debating skills while exploring how the legal system works.

CONTACT US

Most Able Coordinator: Mr Sufiur Wahid

swahid5.310@harrowhigh.com

0208 861 7300 (ext. 215)