Year 8 Autumn 2 Computing: Developing for the web

A) Key knowledge		B) Key knowledge		C) Key knowledge		D) Literacy
HTML	Hypertext mark-up language. The 'bricks' of the website that provide the structure to organise the text and images of webpages.	CSS	Cascading Style Sheets, (CSS,) is a method used to apply formatting information in a separate file.	Visited hyperlink	Link to a resource that has been visited previously	Summarise how to use different search parameters effectively, specifically:
<h1>	<h1> is a heading tag used to turn text in to document title.	Style sheet	The style sheet is used to explain how each occurrence of a tag should be presented.	Child pages	Related subpages from the main result page that the searcher may also find useful	- How OR works - How NOT works (the - symbol) - How phrase searches work (using "" marks)
	 changes the font emphasis of the enclosed text to italics.	Search bar	The place where items being searched for are entered	Resource categories	A way to narrow the type of resources being searched for	[6]
	 changes the font emphasis of the enclosed text to bold.	Search term	Keywords that need to be searched for on web pages	Search engine	Search engines use keywords to categorise the web pages that they find
Image tags	Image tags mark a place in a document where an image should be displayed.	Unvisited hyperlink	Link to a resource related to the search term	Crawler	Search engines use programs known as crawlers or spiders to find content on the World Wide Web
Homework: Look/cover/write and self-mark the information from Section A		Homework: Look/cover/write and self-mark the information from Section B		Homework: Look/cover/write and self-mark the information from Section C		Homework: Literacy task